

We provide a Free End-of-Life service that provides you with the peace-of-mind of your assets being professionally processed, and your data secured with zero environmental impact.

Bring it all together with our Free End-of-Life service.

Our service is straightforward, and we deliver it through the following process:

Provide your contact and company details, along with any policies to which you need to adhere.

Choose your requirements from a menu of options.

Agree and plan your logistic support.

Agree on the contract. (Optional)

Technicians are dispatched to complete on-site work or collect assets.

End-of-Life asset management report and erasure certificate sent to you.

Your company logo and review gets posted on our website. (Optional)

Any serviceable equipment gets allocated to charities.

Other equipment is processed according to the WEEE Directive.

Any proceeds from sold equipment get sent to charities.